Honorable Judge Jensen,

I felt that Raymond Chow's presentation was genuine and sincere. I know I can speak for many of my classmates when I say that we enjoyed his visit with us.

Coming from such a dark history, many of us could relate to what he had to say. Chow understood where our youth were coming from — often, our youth are looking for a sense of belonging and importance, and they turn to a life of gangs and crime. Raymond Chow was able to empathize with us and tell us from his point of view why this road of crime only lead to a dead end.

I feel that because Raymond Chow lived the life of a criminal and now has changed his ways, he is a leading example and an inspiration to us all. I thank him for sharing his story with us.

Sincerely,

Maureen Aragon
